

State Responsibility for Human Rights and Climate Change

WEDNESDAY, 7 DECEMBER AT 10 A.M.
HOWARD COLLEGE (PEOPLES SPACE SH17)

- ◆ Which human rights are violated by climate change?
- ◆ How are States responsible for their actions causing climate change under international law?
- ◆ Is the inaction on climate change a form of discrimination along racial lines?
- ◆ Do you know about the initiative for an Advisory Opinion being asked from the International Court of Justice on legal responsibility for climate change?

An Interactive Discussion among Civil Society Representatives

Wednesday, 7 December
10 a.m. in Room SH17 of Shepstone Building at Howard College (University of Kwazulu-Natal)

Sponsored by: International Youth and Student Movement for the UN (ISMUN), International-Lawyers.Org, North-South XXI, and the World Against Racism Network (WARN).

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL +27-82-8586683